

SummerSongs and WinterSongs Camps

Already ready to register? Yes!

Looking for details? Click the dates to the left for the camp you want.

Every year musicians come to one of four songwriters' camps. The supportive community and the outstanding teachers bring them back year after year.

Long weekend gatherings are held in the winter in California and New York, and week-long camps are held in the summer at the same locations.

The New York camps are held at the Ashokan Center in the Catskills

Click on the dates at the left for details on each camp: staff, classes, and registration information. Please note that the registration for each camp goes up by $50.00 after the early sign up deadline. Check the registration page for details.
